LAWRENCE GAY, JR. REVOCABLE TRUST
AS AMENDED AND RESTATED ON November 28, 2022

This is an Amendment and Restatement of the LAWRENCE GAY, JR. REVOCABLE TRUST dated October 5, 2021, as amended on June 9, 2022 (the "Trust"), by LAWRENCE GAY, JR., as Grantor and as Trustee (referred to in this amendment, including any successor Trustee or Co-Trustee, as the "Trustee"). This Amended and Restated Trust supersedes and amends the Trust in its entirety. The Grantor confirms all prior transfers of assets to the Trustee, who will continue to hold them as set forth in this Amended and Restated Trust. This amendment is dated and will be effective as of November 28, 2022.

In accordance with the right of amendment the Grantor reserved in Article 3 of the Trust, the Grantor hereby amends the Trust as follows:

ARTICLE 1
FAMILY

The Grantor is not married. The Grantor has one child, PEGGY PEPE. Grantor's daughter, PEGGY PEPE, and her son, STEPHEN L. PEPE, and his descendants, are expressly excluded from any provision of this Trust and are to receive no benefit under it. The Grantor has one granddaughter, CHELSEA CRAMER. References to "the Grantor's descendants" mean the Grantor's granddaughter named above and her descendants.

ORIGINAL TRUST ESTATE

The trust estate consists of all assets held in the Trust by the Trustee as of this date, as listed on Schedule A, which together with any assets later added to this Trust are referred to as the "Trust Estate." Any person may transfer assets to the Trust Estate, if the Trustee agrees to accept them. Unless otherwise specified in writing at the time of the transfer, those assets will be held as provided in this Trust Agreement. The Trustee accepts the responsibility of the Trustee, acknowledges receipt of the current Trust assets, and agrees to hold the Trust Estate as set forth in this Trust Agreement.

ARTICLE 3
RESERVED RIGHTS

The Grantor reserves the following personal rights with respect to the Trust during his lifetime:

- To amend or revoke this Trust Agreement;
- To remove a Trustee and to designate a new Trustee;
- To withdraw assets, whether income or principal, from the Trust Estate;

- To require changes in the investments of the Trust Estate, but investments made by the Grantor are not subject to review by the Trustee unless the Grantor's personal rights are suspended under Section 3.2;

- To direct the Trustee to perform any act of administration, whether or not contrary to the terms of the Trust; and

- To direct the Trustee to make distributions during the Grantor's lifetime to any person named by the Grantor.

3.1 By Whom Exercisable. Except as provided below, all rights described above may be exercised only by the Grantor personally, from time to time, subject to the following: all exercises of these powers must be evidenced by a written instrument the Grantor signed, the existence of which has been communicated to the Trustee, and any amendment of the Trust that contains "testamentary aspects" as defined in Section 736.0403 of the Florida Statutes or a revocation of the Trust must be executed with the formalities of a Will in Florida. These powers, and any other powers conferred by law on a trust Grantor, may not be exercised by any guardian who may be appointed for the Grantor or by an attorney-in-fact for the Grantor, except that the Grantor's legal guardian may amend (but not revoke) this Trust Agreement only to the extent necessary to preserve a tax deduction, exemption, or credit consistent with the Grantor's beneficial intentions as stated in this Trust Agreement. The Trustee is to be held harmless and indemnified from any liability for any of its actions or omissions made in reliance on the Grantor's actions or instructions under this article.

3.2 Suspension of Rights. The Grantor's personal rights under this article will be suspended immediately if the Grantor becomes disabled. For these purposes, the Grantor's disability is determined as follows:

(a) Court Decision. If the Grantor is determined to be incapacitated by a court having jurisdiction, the Grantor's personal rights reserved in this article will be suspended until his legal capacity is restored.

(b) Private Decision. In the absence of a judicial determination, if the next successor Trustee reasonably believes that the Grantor is suffering from any mental or physical disability that would affect the Grantor's judgment concerning management of the Trust, and if the next successor Trustee obtains written confirmation of that opinion from the Grantor's physician, the next successor Trustee may give the Grantor written notice to that effect. Upon delivery to the Grantor of that written notice, the Grantor's personal rights reserved in this article will be suspended immediately and the named successor Trustee will serve until the Grantor's legal capacity is determined by a court or until the next successor Trustee rescinds such written notice.

(c) Other Facts. The Grantor's personal powers will be suspended if the Trustee (or the successor Trustee, if applicable) receives credible and timely evidence that the Grantor has disappeared, is unaccountably absent, or is being detained under duress so that he is unable to look after his financial interests.

(d) HIPAA. For purposes of this Section 3.2, the Grantor appoints each of the persons named above as his personal representative under 45 CFR § 164.502(g), a portion of the regulations implementing the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996, as amended ("HIPAA"), to demand, obtain, review, and release to others medical records or other documents protected by the patient-physician privilege, attorney-client privilege, or any similar privilege, including all records subject to, and protected by, HIPAA.

3.3 Homestead Rights. Despite any other provision of this Trust Agreement, the Grantor reserves the right to reside on any real property owned by the Trust during the Grantor's lifetime. The Grantor will be entitled to claim any available homestead tax exemption for any real property in the Trust, and, for purposes of that exemption, his interest in such property will be deemed an interest in real property and not an interest in personal property. This provision does not restrict the Trustee from selling, leasing, or encumbering that property without the Grantor's joinder in any deed or other instrument.

PAYMENTS DURING THE GRANTOR'S LIFETIME

The Trustee shall pay to the Grantor or apply for the Grantor's benefit (without obligation to any guardian who may be appointed for the Grantor) any income and principal that the Trustee in its discretion deems necessary or advisable for the Grantor's best interests. The Trustee in its discretion also may make payments to one or more trusts in which the Grantor is a beneficiary, or may create a separate trust for the Grantor's benefit. The Trustee is authorized to provide for the finest available support and health care for the Grantor, even if this leaves no assets of the Trust remaining for other beneficiaries.

ARTICLE 5
DISTRIBUTIONS AFTER THE GRANTOR'S DEATH

Upon the Grantor's death and after making provision for the payments under Article 17, the Trustee shall distribute the remaining Trust Estate as follows:

5.1 Specific Gifts. The Trustee shall distribute the following specific gifts:

(a) Gifts Under Will. If the Grantor's Will makes a gift of a specific asset that is held in this Trust when the Grantor dies, and if this Trust does not make a specific gift of that asset, the Trustee shall distribute that asset to the beneficiary named in the Grantor's Will. If the Grantor's Will gives his residuary probate estate to this Trust, and if his probate estate is insufficient to satisfy any other preresiduary gift under the Grantor's Will, the Trustee shall satisfy the balance of that gift from the Trust.

(b) Specific Gifts of Cash.

(i) The Trustee shall hold Five Million Dollars ($5,000,000) for the benefit of the Grantor's granddaughter, CHELSEA CRAMER, as provided in Article 6. If said granddaughter is not then surviving, the Trustee shall divide such sum into separate shares for the Grantor's descendants, per stirpes. The Trustee shall hold each beneficiary's share as a separate trust under Article 7.

(ii) The Trustee shall hold One Million Dollars ($1,000,000) for each of the Grantor's then surviving great-grandchildren, to-wit: TYLER S. CRAMER, CAROLINE K. CRAMER, and EMMA N. CRAMER, so that each such surviving beneficiary shall receive the sum of One Million Dollars ($1,000,000) in trust for his or her education. Each such trust shall be held as a separate trust under Article 8. If an above-named great-grandchild is not then surviving, such deceased beneficiary's devise shall lapse.

(iii) The Trustee shall distribute the sum of One Million Dollars ($1,000,000) to the Grantor's sister, MARY ELIZABETH DUNCAN, if then surviving, or, if not then surviving, then to her then living lineal descendants, per stirpes, subject to Article 9. If said beneficiary is not then surviving and fails to leave descendants surviving, this gift shall lapse.

(iv) The Trustee shall distribute the sum of One Million Dollars ($1,000,000) to the Grantor's brother, WILLIAM JOSEPH GAY, if then surviving, or, if not then surviving, then to his then living lineal descendants, per stirpes, subject to Article 9. If said beneficiary is not then surviving and fails to leave descendants surviving, this gift shall lapse.

(v) The Trustee shall distribute the sum of One Million Dollars ($1,000,000) to the Grantor's brother, JOHN RAYMOND GAY, if then surviving, or, if not then surviving, then to his then living lineal descendants, per stirpes, subject to Article 9. If said beneficiary is not then surviving and fails to leave descendants surviving, this gift shall lapse.

(vi) The Trustee shall distribute the sum of One Million Dollars ($1,000,000) to the Grantor's sister, MAHALIE ANN FULTON, if then surviving, or, if not then surviving, then to her then living lineal descendants, per stirpes, subject to Article 9. If said beneficiary is not then surviving and fails to leave descendants surviving, this gift shall lapse.

(vii) The Trustee shall distribute the sum of Eight Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($850,000) to DUSTIN KRAMER, if then surviving, subject to Article 9. If said beneficiary is not then surviving, this gift shall lapse.

(viii) The Trustee shall distribute the sum of One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000) to AMY KIRCHOFF, if then surviving, subject to Article 9. If said beneficiary is not then surviving, this gift shall lapse.

(ix) The Trustee shall distribute the sum of One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000) to LAURA BAILEY, if then surviving, subject to Article 9. If said beneficiary is not then surviving, this gift shall lapse.

(x) The Trustee shall distribute the sum of One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000) to JENNIFER KRISTINE SHEA, if then surviving, subject to Article 9. If said beneficiary is not then surviving, this gift shall lapse.

(xi) The Trustee shall distribute the sum of One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000) to JASON MICHAEL ARNOLD, if then surviving, subject to Article 9. If said beneficiary is not then surviving, this gift shall lapse.

(xii) The Trustee shall distribute the sum of One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000) to CHRISTIE CAZARES, if then surviving, subject to Article 9. If said beneficiary is not then surviving, this gift shall lapse.

(xiii) The Trustee shall distribute the sum of One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000) to MICHAEL ROWE, if then surviving, subject to Article 9. If said beneficiary is not then surviving, this gift shall lapse.

(xiv) The Trustee shall distribute the sum of One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000) to MARY ASHLEY FULTON, if then surviving, subject to Article 9. If said beneficiary is not then surviving, this gift shall lapse.

(xv) The Trustee shall distribute the sum of One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000) to SHELBY ANN FULTON, if then surviving, subject to Article 9. If said beneficiary is not then surviving, this gift shall lapse.

(xvi) The Trustee shall distribute the sum of One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000) to KATHRYN ROSE FULTON, if then surviving, subject to Article 9. If said beneficiary is not then surviving, this gift shall lapse.

(xvii) If DIANE KASO has predeceased the Grantor, the Trustee shall make the following specific gifts. If DIANE KASO survives the Grantor, these gifts shall lapse and the provisions of this Section 5.1(b)(xvii) shall be null and void:

(1) The Trustee shall distribute the sum of Two Hundred Thousand Dollars ($200,000) to DAVID P. WEBB, if then surviving, subject to Article 9. If said beneficiary predeceases the Grantor, such sum shall be distributed to his then living lineal descendants, per stirpes, subject to Article 9. If DAVID P. WEBB predeceases the Grantor failing to leave descendants surviving, this devise shall lapse.

(2) The Trustee shall distribute the sum of Two Hundred Thousand Dollars ($200,000) to PAULA J. GIORDANO, if then surviving, subject to Article 9. If said beneficiary predeceases the Grantor, such sum shall be distributed to her then living lineal descendants, per stirpes, subject to Article 9. If PAULA J. GIORDANO predeceases the Grantor failing to leave descendants surviving, this devise shall lapse.

(c) Other Real Property

(i) 7623 Whitebridge Glen, University Park, FL 34201. The Grantor hereby acknowledges that during his lifetime, the Grantor purchased residential real estate located at 7623 Whitebridge Glen, University Park, FL 34201 and titled it pursuant to an Enhanced Life Estate Deed whereby upon the death of Grantor such real property vests to DIANE KASO.

(ii) 15970 SW 252nd Street, Homestead, FL 33031. The Grantor hereby acknowledges that during his lifetime, the Grantor purchased residential real estate located at 15970 SW 252nd Street, Homestead, FL 33031 and titled it pursuant to an Enhanced Life Estate Deed whereby upon the death of Grantor such real property vests to WILLIAM J. GAY. If WILLIAM J. GAY is not then surviving, and such property is an asset of the Grantor or this Trust, the Trustee shall distribute such property to MAHALIE ANN FULTON.

(iii) 16150 SW 252nd Street, Homestead, FL 33031. The Grantor hereby acknowledges that during his lifetime, the Grantor inherited residential real estate located at 16150 SW 252nd Street, Homestead, FL 33031 and titled it pursuant to an Enhanced Life Estate Deed whereby upon the death of Grantor such real property vests to CHELSEA CRAMER.

(iv) 105 Meadow View Court, Jonesborough, TN 37659. The residential real estate located at 105 Meadow View Court, Jonesborough, TN 37659, if owned by the Grantor or this Trust at the time of distribution hereunder, shall be distributed to Grantor's niece, AMY KIRCHOFF, if then surviving. If said beneficiary is not then surviving, this devise shall lapse.

(v) 5256 SW Savage Street, Palm City, FL 34990. The Grantor hereby acknowledges that during his lifetime, the Grantor purchased residential real estate located at 5256 SW Savage Street, Palm City, FL 34990 and titled it pursuant to an Enhanced Life Estate Deed whereby upon the death of Grantor such real property vests to CHELSEA CRAMER.

(vi) 4645 Tower Hill Lane, #2515 Bld 2, Sarasota, FL 34238. The Grantor hereby acknowledges that during his lifetime, the Grantor purchased a condominium located at 4645 Tower Hill Lane, #2515 Bld 2, Sarasota, FL 34238 and titled it pursuant to an Enhanced Life Estate Deed whereby upon the death of Grantor such real property vests to WILLIAM J. GAY and CATHERINE CAPONE, joint tenants with full rights of survivorship.

(vii) In the event any of the above mentioned Enhanced Life Estate Deeds have not been effectuated or for any reason do not result in the transfer of the properties as set forth above, the Grantor directs that such properties are hereby devised to the noted beneficiaries of each respective property.

(d) Forgiveness of Loan. The Grantor has made a loan to his brother, JOHN GAY, and his wife, LISA GAY. Any monies due and owing on such loan at the time of Grantor's death are hereby forgiven, and no further amounts shall be due.

(e) Residence Trust for the Benefit of Diane Kaso. If DIANE KASO ("DIANE") survives the Grantor, the Trustee shall hold the sum of One Million Dollars ($1,000,000) together with the Grantor's principal residence located at 7336 Chelsea Court, University Park, FL 34201, or any replacement residence thereof (the "Residence") together with all furniture, furnishings and fixtures in or on that real property, all policies of insurance relating to them and to the property, in the "Residence Trust" pursuant to the terms and conditions set forth below for the benefit of DIANE. To be certain, if DIANE predeceases the Grantor, this devise shall lapse.

(i) The Grantor's intent with regard to the Residence Trust is to grant DIANE a life estate in the Residence, and DIANE shall be entitled, to the extent possible, to claim any available homestead tax exemption for the Residence. DIANE shall have the right to reside in the Residence for her lifetime and shall have the sole use of the Residence and such of its contents which are not otherwise specifically devised under the Grantor's Last Will and Testament. No rent shall be charged to DIANE during such time as she shall reside in the Residence.

(ii) During the time DIANE resides in the Residence, the Trustee shall, from the assets of this Residence Trust, pay all expenses of the Residence including, but not limited to, capital and ordinary repairs required to keep the Residence and its contents in good order and condition, premiums required to maintain adequate casualty insurance upon the Residence and its contents, property taxes and assessments levied against the Residence, utility expenses, lawn care, replacement of major appliances, homeowners association fees, and golf and country club membership expenses (the "Residence Expenses"). The Residence shall not be subjected to the lien of any mortgage nor otherwise serve as security for any loan other than the mortgage on the Residence that is in place at the time of Grantor's death, if any; provided, further, that the Trustee shall be responsible for the payments on any such mortgage.

(iii) Upon the earlier to occur of (i) the death of DIANE, and (ii) DIANE abandoning the Residence or ceasing to reside in the Residence for a period of three (3) consecutive months, the Residence Trust shall terminate, and the Residence, together with the remaining assets of the Residence Trust, shall be distributed to CHELSEA CRAMER, outright and free of trust. If said beneficiary is not then surviving, such assets shall be divided into shares for her then living lineal descendants, per stirpes, which shares shall be held as separate trusts as provided in Article 7. If CHELSEA CRAMER is not then surviving, and fails to leave descendants surviving, such portion shall be distributed as provided in Section 5.2.

5.2 Residuary Trust Estate. After giving effect to the provisions of Section 5.1, the Trustee shall distribute the remaining Trust Estate in equal shares to the following charitable beneficiaries:

(i) UNIVERSITY OF MIAMI, Coral Gables, Florida, to be used for the benefit of the UNIVERSITY OF MIAMI ALS CENTER;

(ii) UNIVERSITY OF SOUTH FLORIDA, Tampa, Florida, to be used for the benefit of the USF AMYOTROPHIC LATERAL SCLEROSIS (ALS) CLINIC; and

(iii) MASSACHUSETTS GENERAL HOSPITAL, Boston, Massachusetts, to be used for the benefit of THE HEALEY CENTER FOR ALS.

ARTICLE 6
TRUST FOR GRANDDAUGHTER

The Trustee shall hold, administer, and distribute any trust created for the Grantor's granddaughter, CHELSEA CRAMER, as follows:

6.1 Discretionary Distributions. The Trustee may pay to the beneficiary or apply for her benefit any income and principal from this separate trust that the Trustee in its discretion deems necessary or advisable for the Grantor's granddaughter's health, education, support, and maintenance. In making distributions hereunder, the Trustee shall take into account the funds available to the beneficiary from all other sources.

6.2 Annual Distribution Amount. Until the beneficiary reaches age 62, each year the Trustee shall pay to or apply for the benefit of the beneficiary the sum of Eight-five Thousand Dollars ($85,000) per annum.

6.3 Distribution of Principal. When the Grantor's granddaughter reaches age 62, or upon the Grantor's death if the beneficiary has already reached such age, the Trustee shall distribute the remaining assets of this separate Trust to the Grantor's granddaughter, outright and free of trust.

6.4 General Power of Appointment. If any portion of this separate trust is not wholly exempt from generation-skipping tax, the Grantor's granddaughter may appoint that portion by exercise of this testamentary general power of appointment as provided in Article 16.

6.5 Distribution Without Appointment. If the Grantor's granddaughter dies during the administration of this separate Trust, then upon the death of the Grantor's granddaughter, the Trustee shall divide the trust assets not effectively appointed into shares for the Grantor's granddaughter's descendants, per stirpes. The Trustee shall hold the shares for those descendants as separate trusts as provided in Article 7.

6.6 Alternative Distribution. If none of the beneficiaries under the preceding provisions survive to receive full distribution of the Trust Estate, the Trustee shall distribute all remaining assets as provided in Article 10.

ARTICLE 7
TRUSTS FOR GREAT-GRANDCHILDREN

The Trustee shall hold, administer, and distribute any trust created for a great-grandchild or more remote descendant of the Grantor as follows:

7.1 Discretionary Distributions. The Trustee may pay to a beneficiary or apply for his or her benefit any income and principal from that beneficiary's separate trust that the Trustee in its discretion deems necessary or advisable for that beneficiary's health, education, support, and maintenance.

7.2 Income Payments. When the beneficiary for whom a separate trust was established reaches age 21, the current income of that trust is to be distributed thereafter to the beneficiary or applied for his or her benefit quarterly or more frequently.

7.3 Distribution of Principal. When the beneficiary reaches age 30, or when the beneficiary's trust is established if he or she has already reached that age, the Trustee shall transfer to him or her one-third of the remaining principal of that beneficiary's trust. When the beneficiary reaches age 35, the Trustee shall transfer to the beneficiary one-half of the remaining principal of that trust, or two-thirds of the principal of the trust when the beneficiary's trust is established if he or she has already reached that age. When the beneficiary has reached age 40, the Trustee shall transfer all of the trust assets held in trust for that beneficiary to him or her and terminate this separate trust.

7.4 General Power of Appointment. If any portion of the beneficiary's separate trust is not wholly exempt from generation-skipping tax, he or she may appoint that portion by exercise of this testamentary general power of appointment as provided in Article 16.

7.5 Distribution Without Appointment. Upon the death of the beneficiary, the Trustee shall divide the trust assets not effectively appointed into shares for that beneficiary's descendants, per stirpes; or if there are none, for the then living descendants, per stirpes, of that beneficiary's closest ancestor in degree who is also a descendant of the Grantor; or if there are none, for the Grantor's then living descendants, per stirpes. The Trustee shall hold the shares for those descendants as separate trusts as provided in this article. If any assets are then being held in trust for that descendant, the assets passing to that descendant under this paragraph are to be added to the trust held for that descendant. If any trust has terminated, its share of those assets will be distributed to the persons who would then have been the beneficiaries of that trust had it not terminated.

7.6 Alternative Distribution. If none of the beneficiaries under the preceding provisions survive to receive full distribution of the Trust Estate, the Trustee shall distribute all remaining assets as provided in Article 10.

ARTICLE 8
EDUCATIONAL TRUSTS FOR GREAT-GRANDCHILDREN

The Trustee shall hold, administer, and distribute any trust created for a great-grandchild of the Grantor pursuant to Section 5.1(b)(ii) of Article 5 as follows:

8.1 Discretionary Distributions. The Trustee may pay to a beneficiary or apply for his or her benefit any income and principal from that beneficiary's separate trust that the Trustee in its discretion deems necessary or advisable for that beneficiary's education and health. It is the Grantor's primary intent and desire that this separate trusts be used to provide for the education of the above-named beneficiaries in the manner specified in this Trust Agreement. The term "education" shall include all forms of secondary and post-secondary education, including but not limited to, public or private schools, college, advanced college or post-college, and any provision for same shall include but not be limited to tuition, room and board, books, laboratory or other fees, travel expenses and a reasonable allowance for miscellaneous expenditures.

8.2 Distribution of Principal. When the beneficiary reaches age 30, or when the beneficiary's trust is established if he or she has already reached that age, the Trustee shall transfer all of the trust assets held in trust for that beneficiary to him or her and terminate this separate trust.

8.3 Distribution Without Appointment. Upon the death of the beneficiary, the Trustee shall divide the trust assets not effectively appointed into shares for that beneficiary's descendants, per stirpes; or if there are none, for the then living descendants, per stirpes, of that beneficiary's closest ancestor in degree who is also a descendant of the Grantor; or if there are none, for the Grantor's then living descendants, per stirpes. The Trustee shall hold the shares for those descendants as separate trusts as provided in this article. If any assets are then being held in trust for that descendant, the assets passing to that descendant under this paragraph are to be added to the trust held for that descendant. If any trust has terminated, its share of those assets will be distributed to the persons who would then have been the beneficiaries of that trust had it not terminated.

8.4 Alternative Distribution. If none of the beneficiaries under the preceding provisions survive to receive full distribution of the Trust Estate, the Trustee shall distribute all remaining assets as provided in Article 10.

STANDBY TRUST

If any assets are distributable under this Trust Agreement (other than by exercise of a power of appointment) to a person who has not then reached age 21, or who in the judgment of the Trustee is under a disability, the Trustee will hold that person's share in trust for his or her benefit. In determining a person's disability, the Trustee may rely conclusively upon the opinion of a medical doctor retained by it to make such a determination. The Trustee may pay to that person or apply for his or her benefit any income and principal of this separate trust that the Trustee in its discretion deems necessary or advisable for the person's health, education, support, and maintenance. When the person reaches age 21 or when that person's disability, in the judgment of the Trustee, ceases to exist, the Trustee shall distribute the remaining assets of this separate trust to that person. If that person dies before complete distribution of this separate trust, the remaining trust assets are to be distributed, subject to this article:

(a) as directed by that person in a testamentary general power of appointment, as provided in Article 16; otherwise,

(b) to that person's then living descendants, per stirpes; or if none,

(c) to the then living descendants, per stirpes, of that person's closest ancestor in degree who is also a descendant of the Grantor, or of the named beneficiary, as the case may be; or if none,

(d) to the Grantor's then living descendants, per stirpes; or if none,

(e) as provided in Article 10.

This article is to be effective only and is limited in duration to the extent that it does not result in any violation of any applicable rule against perpetuities or similar law.

ARTICLE 10
ALTERNATIVE DISTRIBUTION

If any property is subject to this article under another provision of this Trust Agreement, the Trustee shall distribute that property in equal shares to the following charitable beneficiaries:

(i) UNIVERSITY OF MIAMI, Coral Gables, Florida, to be used for the benefit of the UNIVERSITY OF MIAMI ALS CENTER;

(ii) UNIVERSITY OF SOUTH FLORIDA, Tampa, Florida, to be used for the benefit of the USF AMYOTROPHIC LATERAL SCLEROSIS (ALS) CLINIC; and

(iii) MASSACHUSETTS GENERAL HOSPITAL, Boston, Massachusetts, to be used for the benefit of THE HEALEY CENTER FOR ALS.

ARTICLE 11
SUCCESSOR TRUSTEE

After the Grantor's death or disability, the Grantor appoints his sister, MAHALIE ANN FULTON, as the successor Trustee of all trusts created by this Trust Agreement. If she fails or ceases to serve, the Grantor appoints BANK OF AMERICA, N.A. to serve as successor Trustee.

ARTICLE 12
PROVISIONS GOVERNING TRUSTEES

The following provisions apply to all Trustees appointed under this Trust Agreement, including the Grantor while he serves as Trustee:

12.1 Incapacity of Trustee. If the Grantor's personal rights are suspended as provided in Article 3, he will cease to serve as Trustee while those rights are suspended.

(a) Disability. If any other Trustee becomes disabled (as defined in this Trust Agreement), he or she will immediately cease to act as Trustee.

(b) Suspension. For purposes of this Section 12.1, if a Trustee fails to sign a release of relevant medical information necessary to determine his or her capacity, that Trustee will be suspended 30 days after the request for such a release is delivered to him or her by the named successor Trustee, or if none, by the persons then entitled to appoint a successor Trustee.

(c) Reinstatement. If a Trustee who ceases to serve because of a disability, or who is suspended as provided above, thereafter recovers from that disability or consents to the release of relevant medical information, he or she may elect to become a Trustee again by giving written notice to the then serving Trustee, and the last Trustee who undertook to serve will then cease to be a Trustee until another successor Trustee is required.

12.2 Resignation. Any Trustee may resign by giving 30 days' written notice delivered personally or by mail to any then serving Co-Trustee and to the Grantor if he is then living and not disabled; otherwise to the next named successor Trustee, or if none, to the persons having power to appoint successor Trustees.

12.3 Power to Name Other Trustees. Whenever a successor Trustee is required and that position is not filled under the terms specified in this Trust Agreement, a majority in interest of the permissible current income beneficiaries, including the natural or legal guardians of any beneficiaries who are then disabled, shall appoint one or more successor Independent Trustees. The appointment will be by a written document (including a testamentary instrument) delivered to the appointed Trustee and to the Grantor, but if the Grantor is deceased or disabled, to all other persons specified in this Section 12.3.

12.4 Removal of Trustees. The Grantor reserves the right to remove any Trustee by giving written notice to that Trustee. After the Grantor's death, or if the Grantor's personal rights are suspended as provided in Article 3, the right to remove Trustees may be exercised as follows. It is directed that such right of removal be exercised no more than once in any eighteen (18) month period:

(a) Right to Remove. The persons then entitled to appoint successor Trustees may remove any Independent Trustee for any reason by giving 30 days' written notice to that Trustee and to the permissible current income beneficiaries, including the natural or legal guardians of any beneficiaries who are then disabled.

(b) Acceptance Required. If there are no successor Trustees named in this Trust Agreement who are eligible and willing to serve, a removal notice must name an Independent Trustee as a successor Trustee, and a qualified successor Trustee must accept appointment within the period of the removal notice.

(c) Exceptions. Despite the foregoing, no person proposed to be removed as Trustee may participate in exercising this removal power, and no person to whom distributions have been suspended under Article 15 may participate in exercising this removal power during that suspension and for two years after that suspension is no longer in effect. Any such persons will not be counted in determining the required votes for removal.

(d) Removal by Beneficiary on Reaching Age. Despite any contrary provisions of this article, a beneficiary for whom a trust is created may remove the Trustee of that trust when he or she reaches age twenty-one (21). If the beneficiary exercises this removal power, he or she must appoint an Independent Trustee to serve as successor.

12.5 Powers of Successor Trustees. Successor Trustees will have all powers granted to the original Trustee, except that only an Independent Trustee will succeed to the powers vested exclusively in the Independent Trustee. Unless a Co-Trustee continues to serve, a Trustee ceasing to serve for any reason has the duties and powers necessary to protect the Trust Estate until it is delivered to a successor Trustee.

12.6 Accountings. Unless waived, accountings must be given to Qualified Beneficiaries at least annually (quarterly if a Corporate Trustee is serving), as provided in Sections 736.0813 and 736.08135 of the Florida Statutes. The written approval by a beneficiary (individually or by representation) of an accounting will be final and binding upon that beneficiary and all persons represented by him or her as to all matters disclosed in that accounting. In any event, if a beneficiary (or his or her representative) fails to object to an accounting within six months of receiving it, that beneficiary's approval is conclusively presumed. A successor Trustee may require the prior Trustee to render a full and final accounting. The Trustee shall provide all other information required under Section 736.0813 of the Florida Statutes, unless waived as permitted in that section, and the limitations on proceedings against the Trustee as specified in Section 736.1008 of the Florida Statutes will apply, despite any other provision of this section.

12.7 Acts by Other Fiduciaries. The Trustee shall take reasonable steps to compel a former Trustee or other person to deliver trust property to the Trustee, but otherwise is not required to question any acts or failures to act of the fiduciary of any other trust or estate, and will not be liable for any prior fiduciary's acts or failures to act. The Trustee can require a beneficiary who requests an examination of another fiduciary's actions or omissions to advance all costs and fees incurred in the examination, and if the beneficiary does not, the Trustee may elect not to proceed or may proceed and offset those costs and fees directly against any payment that would otherwise be made to that beneficiary.

12.8 Court Supervision. The Grantor waives compliance by the Trustee with any law requiring bond, registration, qualification, or accounting to any court.

12.9 Compensation. Each Trustee is entitled to be paid reasonable compensation for services rendered in the administration of the Trust. Reasonable compensation for a Corporate Trustee will be its published fee schedule in effect when its services are rendered unless otherwise agreed in writing, and except as follows. Any fees paid to a Corporate Trustee for making principal distributions, for termination of the trust, and upon termination of its services must be based solely on the value of its services rendered, not on the value of the trust principal. During the Grantor's lifetime the Trustee's fees are to be charged wholly against income (to the extent sufficient), unless directed otherwise by the Grantor in writing.

12.10 Indemnity. Any Trustee who ceases to serve for any reason will be entitled to receive (and the continuing Trustee shall make suitable arrangements to provide) reasonable indemnification and security to protect and hold that Trustee harmless from any damage or liability of any nature that may be imposed upon it because of its actions or omissions while serving as Trustee. This protection, however, does not extend to a Trustee's negligent actions or omissions that clearly and demonstrably result in damage or liability. A prior Trustee may enforce these provisions against the current Trustee or against any assets held in the Trust, or if the prior Trustee is an individual, against any beneficiary to the extent of distributions received by that beneficiary. This indemnification right will extend to the estate, personal representatives, legal successors, and assigns of a Trustee.

12.11 Multiple Trustees. If there are two or more Trustees serving at any time, the following will apply:

(a) Authority. If only two Trustees are serving, any power or discretion of the Trustees may be exercised only by their joint agreement. If more than two Trustees are serving, and unless unanimous agreement is specifically required by the terms of this Trust

Agreement, any power or discretion of the Trustees may be exercised only by a majority. Despite the foregoing, if a Co-Trustee is unavailable to perform duties because of absence, illness, disqualification under other law, or other temporary disability, and prompt action is necessary to achieve the purposes of the Trust or to avoid injury to the Trust property, the remaining Co-Trustee if only one, or a majority of the remaining Co-Trustees if more than one, may act for the Trust.

(b) Delegation. The Trustees may delegate to any one or more of themselves the authority to act on behalf of all the Trustees and to exercise any power held by the Trustees. Trustees who consent to the delegation of authority to other Trustees will be liable for the consequences of the actions of those other Trustees as if the consenting Trustees had joined the other Trustees in performing those actions. Despite the above, only an Independent Trustee may exercise the powers and discretions vested exclusively in Independent Trustees.

(c) Dissents. A dissenting Trustee who did not consent to the delegation of authority to another Trustee and who has not joined in the exercise of a power or discretion cannot be held liable for the consequences of the exercise. A dissenting Trustee who joins only at the direction of the majority will not be liable for the consequences of the exercise if the dissent is expressed in writing delivered to any of the other Trustees before the exercise of that power or discretion.

SURVIVAL PROVISIONS

If any beneficiary is required to survive the Grantor or another person to receive a distribution, and if the beneficiary does not survive the Grantor or that other person by 90 days, or if that beneficiary cannot be located within one year after the Grantor's or that other person's death despite reasonable attempts by the Trustee to locate that beneficiary, the beneficiary will be treated as if he or she died before the Grantor or that other person.

PROTECTION OF INTERESTS

The interest of any beneficiary under this Trust Agreement, in both income or principal, may not be anticipated, alienated, or in any other manner assigned by the beneficiary and will not be subject to any legal process, bankruptcy proceedings, or the interference or control of the beneficiary's creditors or others. This Article is intended to create a spendthrift trust for the interest of any beneficiary under this Trust Agreement pursuant to Fla. Stat. §736.0502.

ARTICLE 15
RESTRICTED BEHAVIORS

If the Trustee reasonably believes that a beneficiary of any trust:

- routinely or frequently uses or consumes any illegal substance so as to be physically or psychologically dependent upon that substance, or is clinically dependent upon the use or consumption of alcohol or any other legal drug or chemical substance that is not prescribed by a board certified medical doctor or psychiatrist in a current program of treatment supervised by such doctor or psychiatrist,

- is unable to refrain from gambling or other addictive behavior (whether or not legal) to the point that, in the Trustee's judgment, the beneficiary's financial well-being is endangered, and if the Trustee reasonably believes that as a result the beneficiary is unable to care for himself or herself, or is unable to manage his or her financial affairs, all mandatory distributions (including distributions upon termination of the trust) to the beneficiary and all of the beneficiary's rights to participate in decisions concerning the removal and appointment of Trustees will be suspended. In that event, the following provisions will apply:

15.1 Suspension for Substance Abuse or Addictive Behavior. If mandatory distributions are suspended because of known or suspected substance abuse, gambling abuse, or other addictive behavior as described above, the Trustee will request the beneficiary to submit to one or more examinations by qualified experts chosen by the Trustee.

(a) In the case of suspected substance abuse, the Trustee will request the beneficiary to submit to examinations (including laboratory tests of tissue and bodily fluids) determined to be appropriate by a board certified medical doctor chosen by the Trustee, and to consent to full disclosure to the Trustee of the results of the examination. If the examination indicates current or recent use of a drug or substance as described above (in the opinion of the examining doctor), the Trustee will request the beneficiary to consult with a medical doctor, psychiatrist, psychologist, or other licensed and qualified counselor chosen by the Trustee with expertise in substance abuse, and to consent to disclosure to the Trustee of the therapeutic recommendations for rehabilitation of the beneficiary.

(b) In the case of suspected gambling abuse or other addictive behavior, the Trustee will request the beneficiary to submit to examination by a psychiatrist, psychologist, or other licensed and qualified counselor with expertise in addictive behavior, and to consent to disclosure to the Trustee of the diagnostic results and if applicable, any therapeutic recommendations.

(c) The Trustee must follow procedures to maintain strict confidentiality of all information disclosed to it, and it may not disclose that information to anyone other than the beneficiary except as provided in Section 15.5 below.

(d) If the beneficiary fails to comply with any such request by the Trustee within 60 days, the Trustee may suspend all distributions to or for the benefit of the beneficiary.

15.2 Administer as a Support Trust. Unless all distributions are suspended as provided in Section 15.1(d), while mandatory distributions are suspended for any of the reasons set forth above, the beneficiary's separate trust will be administered to provide for his or her support and health.

15.3 Resumption of Mandatory Distributions. Any rights to mandatory distributions, withdrawal rights, and rights to participate in decisions concerning the removal and appointment of Trustee will resume:

- in the case of use or consumption of an illegal substance, when examinations indicate no continued use for a period of 12 months, and in all cases (whether the use or consumption is legal or illegal), when the Trustee in its discretion determines that the beneficiary is able to care for himself or herself and to manage his or her financial affairs;

- in the case of gambling abuse or other addictive behavior, when the consulting expert chosen by the Trustee indicates a belief that the beneficiary's financial well-being is no longer endangered as a result of the beneficiary's behavior, and when the Trustee in its discretion determines that the beneficiary is able to care for himself or herself and to manage his or her financial affairs.

When mandatory distributions to the beneficiary are resumed, the remaining balance, if any, of any mandatory distributions that were suspended will be distributed to the beneficiary at that time, but the beneficiary may exercise any withdrawal rights that were suspended only if they are still exercisable under the other terms of this Trust. If a beneficiary dies before distribution or withdrawal of the suspended amounts or assets, the Trustee will distribute the balance of the suspended amounts or assets to the persons who would be the alternate beneficiaries of those amounts or assets as otherwise provided in this Trust.

15.4 Exoneration and Indemnification. No Trustee (nor any doctor, psychiatrist, psychologist, or other counselor or consultant chosen by the Trustee) will be responsible or liable to anyone for a beneficiary's actions or welfare. The Trustee has no duty to monitor a beneficiary's behavior or to inquire whether any of the conditions identified in this article exist. The Grantor relieves the Trustee (and each doctor, psychiatrist, psychologist, or other counselor or consultant chosen by the Trustee) from all liability and direct that each of them be indemnified from the assets of the beneficiary's trust for any damages, attorney's fees, expenses, and other costs for exercising their judgment and authority under this clause, including any failure to request a beneficiary to submit to examination, and including a decision to distribute suspended amounts to a beneficiary.

15.5 Disclosure of Results. The Trustee shall maintain the confidentiality of testing results and other information unless the beneficiary consents to release or unless disclosure is required by law, regulation, or judicial order; unless the Trustee is prohibited under that authority from notifying the affected beneficiary, the Trustee must give notice of any legally required disclosure to the affected beneficiary no later than 10 business days after the disclosure is made. The Trustee has no duty to either support or oppose any actions taken by law enforcement or other governmental agencies seeking to compel the disclosure of a beneficiary's test results and other information obtained under this article, but the Trustee in its discretion may support or oppose such actions and may expend funds from the beneficiary's trust to do so, including the appeal of any subpoenas, court orders, or other legally binding instruments compelling disclosure.

15.6 Tax Savings Provision. Despite the provisions of this article, the Trustee cannot suspend any mandatory distributions that are required for that trust to become or remain a Qualified Subchapter S Trust (unless the Trustee elects for the trust to be an Electing Small Business Trust), or to qualify for any federal transfer tax exemption, deduction, or exclusion allowable with respect to that trust; or to qualify for extended payouts to Eligible Designated Beneficiaries under Section 401(a) of the Internal Revenue Code.

GENERATION-SKIPPING TAX PROVISIONS

The Grantor intends for this Trust Agreement to be interpreted and administered in a way that will minimize generation-skipping transfer ("GST") taxes, but in a manner consistent with directions for division and distribution of the Trust Estate. This is to be achieved by the proper allocation of the Grantor's GST exemption and, to the greatest extent possible, the creation of trusts having an inclusion ratio of either zero or one. All other provisions of this Trust Agreement are subject to this article.

16.1 Definitions. The terms used in this article have the meaning given to them in Chapter 13 of the Internal Revenue Code. "Exempt trust" or "exempt property" means a trust (or trust equivalent) or property that has a GST inclusion ratio of zero. "Nonexempt trust" or "nonexempt property" means a trust (or trust equivalent) or property that has a GST inclusion ratio greater than zero.

16.2 Division Into Separate Trusts. If the value (for purposes of allocating GST exemption) of any trust under this Trust Agreement exceeds the amount of GST exemption to be allocated to it, the Trustee shall divide that trust into exempt and nonexempt trusts. The exempt trust will consist of a fractional share of the trust assets. The numerator of the fraction for the exempt trust will be the amount of GST exemption to be allocated to the trust, and the denominator will be the federal estate tax value of the property held in the trust. The nonexempt trust will consist of the remaining fraction of the trust assets. The exempt and nonexempt trusts will be administered as provided under the terms that govern the trust that was divided. The Trustee may make different decisions with respect to the trusts concerning tax elections, the exercise of the Trustee's discretionary powers and authority (including decisions whether to make discretionary distributions), investment decisions, and any other actions consistent with treatment as separate trusts.

16.3 Trust Additions. Exempt or nonexempt property can be added only to a trust of the same character. If because of this rule a trust cannot receive property, the property will be held as a separate exempt or nonexempt trust by the Trustee of the trust designated to receive the property and administered and distributed as provided for that trust.

16.4 Multiple Transferors. If portions of a single trust are attributable to transfers from different transferors, the Trustee shall maintain sufficient records to preserve the treatment of those portions as separate trusts under Section 2654(b)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code.

16.5 Exemption Allocation. The Grantor directs his Personal Representative and the Trustee to allocate his GST exemption so as to maximize the benefit of that exemption. The

Grantor anticipates that, absent unusual circumstances, his exemption would be best allocated to transfers in the order of priority listed below, but the Grantor does not restrict his Personal Representative and the Trustee from allocating his GST exemption in a different manner if more beneficial. If the Grantor's Personal Representative and the Trustee do not otherwise validly allocate his GST exemption on a timely filed return, the Grantor directs that his GST exemption be allocated as follows:

(a) Direct Skips. To the Grantor's "direct skip" transfers if those transfers do not qualify for any other exemption or exclusion from the GST tax, but if a nonskip person makes a disclaimer of property, no GST exemption is to be allocated to that property.

(b) Other Transfers. Thereafter, to other transfers as the Trustee deems appropriate.

16.6 Appropriate Interest. If GST exemption is allocated to a residuary gift and a pecuniary gift is not entitled to income or interest under state law, the Trustee must allocate to that pecuniary gift a pro rata share of the income of the Trust Estate between the Grantor's date of death and the date of payment, unless that pecuniary gift is paid in full (or irrevocably segregated and held in a separate account pending distribution) within 15 months after the Grantor's death.

16.7 General Power of Appointment. The following rules apply if another provision of this Trust Agreement gives a beneficiary a general power of appointment over a nonexempt trust exercisable upon death, but only if that other provision specifically refers to this article. If GST tax would be owed upon a distribution of trust assets to the takers in default if the beneficiary did not exercise the power (whether or not the beneficiary actually exercises the power), the beneficiary also can appoint the assets of the trust to bona fide creditors of the beneficiary's estate, subject to the following limit. This additional power of appointment is limited to the minimum amount that will cause the least aggregate amount of transfer taxes to be incurred by reason of the beneficiary's death (whether as estate tax in the beneficiary's estate or as GST tax), taking into account all applicable credits, deductions, exclusions, and exemptions.

16.8 Distributions From Multiple Trusts. If a trust has been divided into exempt and nonexempt trusts, the following rules will govern how distributions are made as between those trusts.

(a) Nonexempt Trust Primary. If the Trustee has discretion to make a distribution from more than one trust to or for the benefit of the same person, the distribution is to be made from the nonexempt trust unless it would be a taxable distribution to that person, in which case the distribution is to be made from the exempt trust, unless compelling circumstances require otherwise.

(b) Allocating Charges. If a trust charged with the payment of taxes or expenses is divided into exempt and nonexempt trusts, those taxes and expenses are to be paid first from the nonexempt trust, and from the exempt trust only after the nonexempt trust has been exhausted.

16.9 Paying GST Tax. If a federal or state GST tax is imposed with respect to any transfer under this Trust Agreement, the amount of the tax will be charged to the property constituting the transfer as provided in Section 2603(b) of the Internal Revenue Code.

ARTICLE 17
PAYMENTS OF OBLIGATIONS, EXPENSES, AND TAXES

The Trustee shall pay all of the Grantor's obligations, expenses, and taxes as follows:

17.1 Obligations. The Grantor directs that his legally enforceable obligations (except those secured by mortgages or other security instruments) be paid in the order and manner prescribed by law.

17.2 Expenses. The term "expenses" includes all estate transmission or management expenses of the Grantor's probate estate, all administrative expenses of this Trust, and all costs of the Grantor's last illness and funeral. The Grantor directs that all expenses be paid from the Residuary Trust Estate, except that no expenses are to be charged to any interest if that would diminish the aggregate estate tax deductions available. Payments may be made from and charged to either income or principal, at the discretion of the Trustee. The Trustee shall not seek reimbursement from any party for expenses that it pays.

17.3 Taxes. The term "estate taxes" means all state and federal estate, inheritance, or transfer taxes payable by reason of the Grantor's death (including the generation-skipping transfer tax on any direct skip created by the express terms of this Trust Agreement rather than by disclaimer), plus any related interest and penalties attributable to these taxes, but excluding any other generation-skipping taxes.

(a) Specified Transfers. The Trustee shall pay all estate taxes charged with respect to the Grantor's gross estate for estate tax purposes (including estate taxes on assets that do not pass under this Trust Agreement), but with the following exceptions. The Trustee shall not pay estate taxes charged on each of the following assets (collectively referred to as the "Specified Transfers") if the value of a Specified Transfer exceeds One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000):

(1) assets that the Grantor jointly owns with someone else and that pass by survivorship to that other person;

(2) assets held in what is known as a "Totten Trust," a "Pay On Death Account," an "In Trust For Account," or similar arrangement;

(3) death benefits included in the Grantor's gross estate under Sections 2035 (which governs transfers made within three years before death), 2039 (which governs taxes on annuities and qualified retirement plans), or 2042 (which governs taxes on insurance benefits) of the Internal Revenue Code, unless those death benefits are paid to this Trust;

(4) any assets over which the Grantor has a taxable power of appointment under Section 2041 of the Internal Revenue Code, unless those assets are appointed to this Trust;

(5) qualified terminable interest property described in Section 2044 of the Internal Revenue Code (which governs QTIP trusts and similar arrangements);

(6) any other assets not held in trust under this Trust Agreement that are included in the Grantor's gross estate under Sections 2035 through 2038 of the Internal Revenue Code (governing transfers made by the Grantor in which he retained an income interest, revocable transfers, and other transfers), unless those assets are paid to this Trust.

(b) Remaining Taxes. The tax applicable to any Specified Transfer that exceeds One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000) in value will be paid as provided in the applicable federal or state tax apportionment statutes. The Trustee shall pay all other estate taxes from the Residuary Trust Estate, without apportionment. Despite any provision of this instrument to the contrary, however, the following will apply in allocating and paying estate taxes:

- No estate taxes are to be charged to any interest if that would diminish the aggregate estate tax deductions available.
- The Residuary Trust Estate is not to be charged with any additional estate taxes imposed pursuant to Sections 2032A(c) and 2057(f) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to the recapture of taxes on qualified real property and qualified family business interests.
- If any credit under Sections 2012 (relating to credit for gift taxes paid) or 2014 (relating to credit for foreign estate taxes paid) of the Internal Revenue Code is attributable to the property described in this paragraph, that credit is to be applied against the tax apportioned to the property as to which the credit is attributable.

(c) Reimbursement. The Grantor waives all rights of recovery under Sections 2206, 2207, and 2207B of the Internal Revenue Code, except to the extent of the Specified Transfers. The Grantor directs the Trustee to exercise all rights of recovery of estate taxes granted by Section 2207A of the Internal Revenue Code as in effect at the Grantor's death, to the extent that the Trustee determines that exercising those rights is economically justifiable.

(d) Method of Payment. The Trustee may rely on a written statement signed by the Grantor's Personal Representative as to the amount of those expenses and taxes. The Trustee may make payment directly or to the Grantor's Personal Representative, as the Grantor's Personal Representative requests. The Trustee will be held harmless from any liability in making payments as so directed.

(e) Trust for Death Benefits. If any life insurance proceeds or other death benefits of any kind included in the Grantor's gross estate for federal estate tax purposes become payable to the Trustee, those proceeds are to be held by the Trustee as a separate trust after the Grantor's death, and to be made available for the payment of expenses of administration and taxes. These proceeds may not be used for payment of claims against the Grantor's estate. The Trustee shall allocate these proceeds, and shall pay from them any expenses of administration and taxes, as directed in writing by the Grantor's Personal Representative. The Trustee shall accumulate any income from this separate trust into principal and, upon termination of the Trust, pay the remaining assets as provided for the Residuary Trust Estate in Article 5.

(f) Excluded Property. If any funds become available to the trustees of any trust, including without limit, life insurance, qualified employee benefit plans, individual retirement accounts, or other property from sources specified in Section 2039 of the Internal Revenue Code, and those funds are not otherwise included in the Grantor's gross estate for federal estate tax purposes, then none of those funds may be used to pay, directly or indirectly, any debts, taxes, or expenses of the Grantor or his estate.

FIDUCIARY POWERS

The Grantor grants to the Trustee full power to deal freely with any property in the Trust. The Trustee may exercise these powers independently and without the approval of any court. No person dealing with the Trustee need inquire into the propriety of any of its actions or into the application of any funds or assets. The Trustee however, shall exercise all powers in a fiduciary capacity in good faith, as a prudent person would using reasonable care, skill, and caution, for the best interest of the beneficiaries of any trust created in this Trust Agreement. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Trustee is given the following discretionary powers in addition to any other powers conferred by law:

18.1 Type of Assets. Except as otherwise provided to the contrary, to hold funds uninvested for such periods as the Trustee deems prudent, and to invest in any assets the Trustee deems advisable even though they are not technically recognized or specifically listed in so-called "legal lists," without responsibility for depreciation or loss on account of those investments, or because those investments are non-productive, as long as the Trustee acts in good faith.

18.2 Original Assets. Except as otherwise provided to the contrary, to collect and retain the original assets it receives for as long as it deems best, and to dispose of those assets when it deems advisable, even though such assets, because of their character or lack of diversification, would otherwise be considered improper investments for the Trustee.

18.3 Tangible Personal Property. To receive and hold tangible personal property; to pay or refrain from paying storage and insurance charges for such property; and to permit any beneficiaries to use such property without either the Trustee or beneficiaries incurring any liability for wear, tear, and obsolescence of the property.

18.4 Financial Accounts. To deposit trust money in one or more accounts in regulated financial service institutions, including but not limited to banks, savings institutions, and brokerage houses, and to draw checks, drafts, or other forms of withdrawal, including electronic transfers, from those accounts.

18.5 Specific Securities. To invest in assets, securities, or interests in securities of any nature, whether obtained in domestic or foreign markets, including (without limit) precious metals, and currencies; to invest in mutual or investment funds, including funds for which the Trustee or any affiliate performs services for additional fees, whether as manager, custodian, transfer agent, investment advisor or otherwise, or in securities distributed, underwritten, or issued by the Trustee, its affiliates, or syndicates of which it is a member and the Grantor specifically authorizes the Trustee to invest in the instruments described in Section 736.0802(5) of the Florida Statutes (including assets other than qualified investment instruments) without notice to or consent from any beneficiary; to trade on credit or margin accounts (whether secured or unsecured); and to pledge assets of the Trust Estate for that purpose.

18.6 Property Transactions. To buy, sell, pledge, exchange, or lease any real or personal property, publicly or privately, for cash or credit, without court approval and upon the terms and conditions that the Trustee deems advisable; to execute deeds, leases, contracts, bills of sale, notes, mortgages, security instruments, and other written instruments; to grant, acquire, or exercise options; to abandon or dispose of any real or personal property in the Trust which has little or no monetary or useful value; to improve, repair, insure, subdivide and vacate any property; to erect, alter or demolish buildings; to adjust boundaries; and to impose easements, including conservation easements, restrictions, and covenants as the Trustee sees fit. An instrument described in this section will be valid and binding for its full term even if it extends beyond the full duration of the Trust.

18.7 Borrow Money. To borrow money from any source (including the Trustee in its nonfiduciary capacity), to guarantee indebtedness, and to secure the loan or guaranty by mortgage or other security interest.

18.8 Maintain Assets. To expend whatever funds it deems proper for the preservation, maintenance, or improvement of assets. The Trustee in its discretion may elect any options or settlements or exercise any rights under all insurance policies that it holds. However, no fiduciary who is the insured of any insurance policy held in the Trust may exercise any rights or have any incidents of ownership with respect to the policy, including the power to change the beneficiary, to surrender or cancel the policy, to assign the policy, to revoke any assignment, to pledge the policy for a loan, or to obtain from the insurer a loan against the surrender value of the policy. All such power is to be exercised solely by the remaining Trustee, if any, or if none, by a special fiduciary appointed for that purpose by a court having jurisdiction.

18.9 Digital Assets and Accounts. As provided in and in furtherance of the Florida Fiduciary Access to Digital Assets Act ("FFADAA"), to access and control communications intended for the Grantor, and communicate on the Grantor's behalf, whether by mail, electronic transmission, telephone, or other means; to access and control all of the Grantor's accounts involving web-based communications or storage and web-hosted media, including but not limited to emails, messages, blogs, subscriptions, pictures, videos, e-books, audiobooks, memberships in organizations or commercial enterprises, and all forms of social media, whether or not those require a user name and password for access, even to the extent of compelling the provider to reset the Grantor's information to data of the Grantor's Trustee's choosing, all in keeping with the Electronic Communications Privacy Act of 1986, the Computer Fraud and Abuse Act of 1986, and FFADAA, as those may be amended; and to hold, control, and have access to and the use of any digital asset (as defined in FFADAA) held by any kind of computing or digital storage device or service, including cryptocurrency of any type.

18.10 Insurance. To obtain property, casualty, liability or any other insurance for the Trust, including insurance for the Trustee and its agents against damage or liability arising from administration of the Trust.

18.11 Advisors. To employ and compensate attorneys, accountants, advisors, financial consultants, managers, agents, and assistants (including any individual or entity who provides investment advisory or management services, or who furnishes professional assistance in making investments for the Trust) without liability for any act of those persons, if they are selected and retained with reasonable care. Fees may be paid from the Trust Estate even if the services were rendered in connection with ancillary proceedings. The Trustee may serve in any of these capacities and be compensated separately for its services in each.

18.12 Indirect Distributions. To make distributions, whether of principal or income, to any person under age 21 or to any person the Trustee reasonably believes is disabled according to the terms of this Trust Agreement by (i) making distributions directly to that person whether or not that person has a guardian; to the parent, guardian, or spouse of that person; to a custodial account established by the Trustee or others for that person under an applicable Uniform Gift to Minors Act or Uniform Transfers to Minors Act; to any adult who resides in the same household with that person or who is otherwise responsible for the care and well-being of that person; (ii) managing the amount as a separate fund on that person's behalf, subject to his or her continuing right to withdraw that amount; or (iii) applying any distribution for the benefit of that person in any manner the Trustee deems proper. The receipt of the person to whom payment is made will constitute full discharge of the Trustee with respect to that payment.

18.13 Non-Pro Rata Distribution. To make any division or distribution in money or in kind, or both, without allocating the same kind of property to all shares or distributees, and without regard to the income tax basis of the property. Any division will be binding and conclusive on all parties.

18.14 Nominee. Except as prohibited by law, to hold any assets in the name of a nominee without disclosing the fiduciary relationship; to hold the property unregistered, without affecting its liability; and to hold securities endorsed in blank, in street certificates, at a depository trust company, or in a book entry system.

18.15 Custodian. To employ a custodian or agent ("the Custodian") located anywhere within the United States, at the discretion of the Trustee but at the expense of the Trust, whether or not such Custodian is an affiliate of the Trustee or any person rendering services to the Trust; to register securities in the name of the Custodian or a nominee thereof without designation of fiduciary capacity; and to appoint the Custodian to perform such other ministerial functions as the Trustee may direct. While such securities are in the custody of the Custodian, the Trustee will be under no obligation to inspect or verify such securities nor will the Trustee be responsible for any loss by the Custodian.

18.16 Administer Claims. To contest, compromise, arbitrate, or otherwise adjust claims in favor of or against the Trust, including paying those claims in full; to agree to any rescission or modification of any contract or agreement; and to refrain from instituting any suit or action unless indemnified for reasonable costs and expenses.

18.17 Corporate Rights. To vote and exercise any option, right, or privilege to purchase or to convert bonds, notes, stock (including shares or fractional shares of stock of any Corporate Trustee), securities, or other property; to borrow money for the purpose of exercising any such option, right, or privilege; to delegate those rights to an agent; to enter into voting trusts and other agreements or subscriptions; to participate in any type of liquidation or reorganization of any enterprise; and to write and sell covered call options, puts, calls, straddles, or other methods of buying or selling securities, as well as all related transactions.

18.18 Business Interests. To hold interests in sole proprietorships, general or limited partnerships, joint ventures, business trusts, land trusts, limited liability companies, and other domestic and foreign forms of organizations; and to exercise all rights in connection with such interests as the Trustee deems appropriate, including any powers applicable to a non-admitted transferee of any such interest.

18.19 Self-Dealing. To exercise all its powers even though it may also be acting individually or on behalf of any other person or entity interested in the same matters. The Trustee, however, shall exercise these powers at all times in a fiduciary capacity, primarily in the interest of the beneficiaries of the Trust. Despite any other provision of this Trust Agreement, no Trustee may participate in the decision to make a discretionary distribution that would discharge a legal support obligation of that Trustee. No Trustee who has made a disclaimer, either individually or as a Trustee, may exercise any discretion in determining the recipient of the disclaimed property, except pursuant to an ascertainable standard. All power to make such unlimited distributions, or to determine recipients of disclaimed property, will be exercised solely by the remaining Trustees, if any, or if there are no other Trustees then serving, by the person or persons named to serve as the next successor Trustee, or if there are none, by a special Trustee appointed for that purpose by a court having jurisdiction.

18.20 Elections. If no Personal Representative is serving for the Grantor's estate, and to the extent permitted by law, to perform in a fiduciary capacity any act and make any and all decisions or elections under state law or the Internal Revenue Code on behalf of the Grantor or his estate, including but not limited to, claiming the whole or any part of the expenses of administration as income tax deductions for the Grantor's estate or this Trust, electing the marital deduction in whole or in part, making allocations of the Grantor's exemption from the federal generation-skipping transfer tax, adopting alternate values for estate tax purposes, and selecting taxable years and dates of distribution. The Trustee is specifically excused from making equitable adjustments among beneficiaries because of any election.

18.21 Qualified Property. To manage any qualified real property or qualified family-owned business interests so as to avoid imposition of the additional estate tax under Sections 2032A or 2057 of the Internal Revenue Code, and to furnish security for the payment of any additional estate taxes imposed under those sections.

18.22 Expenses. To pay all expenses of administration for the Trust Estate, including all taxes, assessments, compensation of the Trustee and its employees and agents, and reimbursements for expenses advanced (with interest as appropriate). An Independent Trustee may determine how expenses of administration and receipts are to be apportioned between principal and income.

18.23 Terminate Small Trusts. After the Grantor's death, to exercise its discretion, without court approval, to refrain from funding or to terminate any trust whenever the value of the principal of that trust (or if a trust has been divided into exempt and nonexempt trusts, the principal value of those combined trusts) would be or is less than Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000), and to distribute the remaining principal and all accumulated income of the trust to include the types of distributions described in Section 18.12 to the beneficiaries then entitled to receive income in proportion to their shares of that income (or on a per capita basis if their shares are not fixed) in a manner consistent with the purposes of the Trust. The Trustee shall exercise this power to terminate in its discretion as it deems prudent for the best interest of the qualified beneficiaries at that time.

18.24 Allocations to Income and Principal. To treat premiums and discounts on bonds and other obligations for the payment of money in accordance with either generally accepted accounting principles or tax accounting principles and, except as otherwise provided to the contrary, to hold nonproductive assets without allocating any principal to income, despite any laws or rules to the contrary. The Trustee in its discretion may exercise the power described in Section 738.104 of the Florida Statutes to adjust between principal and income, as appropriate, including the allocation of some or all of the net capital gain to the beneficiaries as if it were fiduciary accounting income. The Trustee in its discretion may treat any discretionary distributions of principal as being paid first from realized capital gains. In addition, the Trustee may convert any income interest into a unitrust interest, or a unitrust interest to an income interest, as it sees fit, all as provided in Section 738.1041 of the Florida Statutes.

18.25 Use of Income. Except as otherwise provided in this Trust Agreement, and in addition to all other available sources, to exercise its discretion in the use of income from the assets of the Trust to satisfy the liabilities described in this Trust Agreement, without accountability to any beneficiary.

18.26 Sever or Join Trusts. To sever any trust on a fractional basis into two or more separate trusts, and to segregate by allocation to a separate account or trust a specific amount from, a portion of, or a specific asset included in any trust. The Trustee may consolidate two or more trusts (including trusts created by different transferors) having substantially the same beneficial terms and conditions into a single trust. The Trustee may take into consideration differences in federal tax attributes and other pertinent factors in administering any separate account or trust, in making applicable tax elections, and in making distributions. A trust created by severance or consolidation will be treated as a separate trust for all purposes from the date on which the severance or consolidation is effective (which may be before the exercise of this power), and will be held on the same beneficial terms and conditions as those before the severance or consolidation. Income earned on a consolidated or severed amount, portion, or specific asset after the consolidation or severance is effective will pass with that amount, portion, or specific asset.

18.27 Consolidated Funds. Unless inconsistent with other provisions of this Trust Agreement, to hold two or more trusts or other funds in one or more consolidated funds, in which the separate trusts or funds have undivided interests, except that an accounting must be rendered to each trust showing its undivided interests in those funds.

18.28 Valuations. In making distributions or allocations under the terms of this Trust Agreement to be valued as of a particular date, to use asset valuations obtained for a date reasonably close to that particular date (such as a quarterly closing date before or after that date) if, in the Trustee's judgment, obtaining appraisals or other determinations of value on that date would result in unnecessary expense, and if in the Trustee's judgment, the fair market value as determined is substantially the same as on that actual date. This paragraph will not apply if valuation on a specific date is required to preserve a qualification for a tax benefit, including any deduction, credit, or most favorable allocation of an exemption.

18.29 Incorporation. To incorporate any business or venture, and to continue any unincorporated business that the Trustee determines to be not advisable to incorporate.

18.30 Delegation. To delegate periodically among themselves the authority to perform any act of administration of any trust.

18.31 Loans; Advances. To make loans to anyone under commercially reasonable terms, and to make cash advances or loans to beneficiaries, with or without security. The Trustee may retain a lien on future distributions to a beneficiary to repay those loans.

18.32 Election of Benefits. To select a mode of payment under any employee benefit or retirement plan, annuity, or life insurance payable to the trustee, exercise rights under such plan, annuity, or insurance, including exercise of the right to indemnification for expenses and against liabilities, and take appropriate action to collect the proceeds.

18.33 Investment Manager. To employ any investment management service, financial institution, or similar organization to advise the Trustee and to handle all investments of the Trust and to render all accountings of funds held on its behalf under custodial, agency, or other agreements. If the Trustee is an individual, these costs may be paid as an expense of administration in addition to fees and commissions.

18.34 Depreciation. To deduct from all receipts attributable to depreciable property a reasonable allowance for depreciation, computed in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles consistently applied.

18.35 Disclaim Assets or Powers. To disclaim any assets otherwise passing or any fiduciary powers pertaining to any trust created hereunder, by execution of an instrument of disclaimer meeting the requirements of applicable law generally imposed upon individuals executing disclaimers. No notice to or consent of any beneficiary, other interested person, or any court is required for any such disclaimer, and the Trustee is to be held harmless for any decision to make or not make such a disclaimer. No disclaimer by the Trustee, whether as a fiduciary or as an individual, will cause that person to be treated as having predeceased the Grantor for purposes of serving as Trustee.

18.36 Related Parties. To enter into any transaction on behalf of the Trust despite the fact that another party to that transaction may be: (i) a business or trust controlled by the Trustee, or of which the Trustee, or any director, officer, or employee of the Corporate Trustee, is also a director, officer, or employee; (ii) an affiliate or business associate of any beneficiary or the Trustee; or (iii) a beneficiary or Trustee under this Trust Agreement acting individually, or any relative of such a party.

18.37 Additional Powers for Income-Producing Real Estate. In addition to the other powers set forth above or otherwise conferred by law, the Trustee has the following powers with respect to any income-producing real property which is or may become a part of the Trust Estate:

- To retain and operate the property for as long as it deems advisable;
- To control, direct, and manage the property, determining the manner and extent of its active participation in these operations, and to delegate all or any part of its supervisory power to other persons that it selects;
- To hire and discharge employees, fix their compensation, and define their duties;
- To invest funds in other land holdings and to use those funds for all improvements, operations, or other similar purposes;
- Except as otherwise provided with respect to mandatory income distributions, to retain any amount of the net earnings for working capital and other purposes that it deems advisable in conformity with sound and efficient management; and
- To purchase and sell machinery, equipment, and supplies of all kinds as needed for the operation and maintenance of the land holdings.

18.38 Winding Up. On termination of a trust, to exercise the powers appropriate to wind up the administration of that trust and distribute the remaining assets to the persons entitled to them, and to retain a reasonable reserve for the payment of debts, expenses, and taxes.

ARTICLE 19
ENVIRONMENTAL PROVISIONS

The following rules govern administration of the Trust with respect to assets that could cause the Trustee to incur liability for environmental contamination or hazardous wastes.

19.1 Vesting of Title. Title to the following types of assets will not vest in any Trustee (including a successor Trustee when it begins to serve) until the Trustee executes a written instrument accepting title to those assets:

- Real property or any interest of any nature in real property (including mortgages secured by real property), and

- Any interest in a partnership, limited liability company, or closely held corporation which owns real property or an interest in real property and in which the Trustee would have the ability to vote or otherwise participate in the management and control of the entity's operations.

If the Trustee refuses to accept title to an asset that has never been part of this Trust, title to that asset will revert to the transferor or pass to such other persons (other than the Trustee) as may be provided by applicable law. If a successor Trustee refuses to accept title to such an asset accepted by the prior Trustee, the prior Trustee (or his or her Personal Representative) will continue to hold title to and administer that asset until it is distributed, sold, or otherwise disposed of, or until other relief is granted by a court having jurisdiction over the Trust. Until it accepts title to such an asset, the Trustee will have no fiduciary duty with respect to that asset.

19.2 Audits. The Trustee may require environmental audits acceptable to it to be made at any time at the expense of the Trust.

19.3 Liability. The Trustee will not be liable to any beneficiary for any claims against or losses incurred by the Trust because of compliance with laws regulating environmental contamination or hazardous wastes, including reporting or abating contamination, cleaning up property, incurring expenses in connection with administrative or judicial proceedings, and establishing reserves for such payments, even if amounts expended exceed the value of the property. The Trustee may require indemnities or other arrangements satisfactory to it that will protect and hold it harmless from liability that might be incurred for environmental contamination or hazardous substances.

19.4 Other Laws. These provisions are in addition to other remedial powers and rights given to fiduciaries under applicable law.

SUBCHAPTER S STOCK

Despite any other provisions of this Trust Agreement, if a trust created in this instrument is to become the owner of, or already owns, stock in a corporation or other business entity that has an election in effect (or one that proposes to make an election) under Section 1362 of the Internal Revenue Code (an "S Corporation"), and that trust would not otherwise be permitted to be an S Corporation shareholder, the Trustee in its discretion may cause the trust to become an "Electing Small Business Trust," as that term is defined in Section 1361 of the Internal Revenue Code, by making such elections as are required.

ARTICLE 21
INSURANCE PROVISIONS

Any insurance policies acquired by or payable to the Trustee as an asset of this Trust are to be administered as follows:

21.1 Payment of Premiums. The Trustee may pay from the income and principal of the Trust any premiums or assessments upon any insurance policies that it holds under the terms of this instrument.

21.2 Collection of Policy Proceeds. Upon the death of an insured, the Trustee shall process all claims for payment of death benefits payable to the Trustee. If payment of any policy is contested, however, the Trustee will not be obligated to begin legal proceedings for collection unless it is indemnified to its satisfaction for all costs, including attorney's fees. The Trustee may repay any person, including itself, from the Trust for any advances or expenses incurred in attempting to collect death benefits on such policies.

21.3 Trustee Protection. The Trustee will have no liability or responsibility for any loss resulting from the failure of any insurance company and its inability to pay a claim under any insurance policy acquired by the Trustee. The Trustee will be under no obligation to invest any cash value accumulated in any life insurance policy owned by the Trust, regardless of the investment yield on such value within the policy as compared to the net investment yield which could be obtained outside the policy. The Trustee will not be liable or accountable to anyone for the exercise or nonexercise of any rights, benefits, options, or privileges under any policy held in this Trust, including the option to borrow against the cash values to obtain a higher investment yield outside the policy. In addition, Section 736.0902, Florida Statutes (and any successor provision providing for an exception to the prudent investor rules with respect to life insurance policies) applies to all contracts of life insurance held or acquired by the Trust.

21.4 Responsibilities of Insurance Companies. No insurance company will be responsible for the application of any insurance proceeds by the Trustee. Payment to the Trustee of the benefits due with respect to any insurance policy held as part of the Trust will completely discharge the insurance company from any further liability under that policy.

PERPETUITIES PROVISION

Despite any contrary provisions of this Trust Agreement, from the date of the Grantor's death and for up to the longest fixed period allowed by the Florida Rule Against Perpetuities thereafter a trust beneficiary (which includes persons succeeding to the interest of a deceased beneficiary) will be entitled to terminating distributions only at the ages specified in this Trust Agreement. In all events, however, the share of each beneficiary will vest (in the beneficiary or his or her estate) immediately prior to the expiration of the period described above.

ARTICLE 23
QUALIFIED PLAN PROCEEDS

If any funds from qualified employee benefit plans, individual retirement accounts, or other property from sources specified in Section 2039 of the Internal Revenue Code (collectively referred to as the "Accounts") become available to the Trustee of any trust created under this Trust, the provisions of this article will apply to these trusts and the Accounts paid to them.

23.1 Designated Beneficiaries. The Grantor wishes to allow the maximum deferral of distributions from the Accounts and discretion for the Trustee in adjusting or controlling income tax consequences of accelerated distributions under the SECURE Act of 2019. Therefore, unless a contrary intent appears in the appropriate beneficiary designation form, the Grantor intends and directs that any trust to which one or more of the Accounts are payable qualify as a "see-through" trust and its beneficiaries be treated as qualified recipients (as defined below) within the meaning of the minimum distribution rules under Section 401(a)(9) of the Internal Revenue Code and applicable regulations, as amended. No portion of the Accounts will be payable to an entity, such as the Grantor's estate or an Exempt Organization, unless there are no qualified recipients eligible to receive those funds.

23.2 Restrictions on Accounts. No portion of the Accounts payable to a trust may be used, paid, or appointed in such a way as to disqualify the trust beneficiaries as qualified recipients. By way of example and not in limitation:

(a) No portion of the Accounts may be used to pay, directly or indirectly, any debts or expenses of the Grantor or of the Grantor's estate, including any share of estate taxes payable from this Trust or chargeable to the Grantor's estate.

(b) No portion of the Accounts may be used to satisfy a gift to a beneficiary other than a qualified recipient.

(c) If a conduit trust is required under Treasury Regulations to qualify a beneficiary as an eligible designated beneficiary under Section 401(a)(9), the Grantor directs that beneficiary's trust to which a portion (or all) of the Accounts is paid be administered as a conduit trust for that person, as permitted under applicable IRS guidance. To this end, the Trustee of that beneficiary's trust must distribute to that beneficiary, immediately upon receipt, all amounts paid to that trust from the Accounts, net of expenses directly attributable to that trust or Account, even if that distribution is in excess of the trust's fiduciary accounting income. Although the Grantor prefers that the assets in the Accounts remain intact for the longest period allowed by law so as to permit the beneficiary to receive them over the longest permissible period, including his or her life expectancy, the Trustee may withdraw additional assets from the Accounts as needed for the beneficiary's support, as may be specified in the beneficiary's trust, provided those assets are then distributed to, or used for the benefit of, that beneficiary.

(d) If a beneficiary's trust is not required to be a conduit trust to qualify that beneficiary as an eligible designated beneficiary under Section 401(a)(9), the Grantor directs that beneficiary's trust to which a portion (or all) of the Accounts is paid be administered as an accumulation trust for that person, as permitted under applicable IRS guidance. To this end, the Trustee of that beneficiary's trust may accumulate the proceeds received from the Accounts, or may distribute some or all of those amounts to that beneficiary as may be specified in the beneficiary's trust for his or her support, unless restricted in the terms of that trust.

(e) All other trusts to which a portion (or all) of the Accounts is paid to and held for designated beneficiaries will be accumulation trusts.

(f) To the greatest extent allowed by law, the Grantor directs that any portion of a trust held for an eligible designated beneficiary as a conduit trust be allocated to one or more accumulation trusts for the individuals succeeding to that beneficiary's interest upon the expiration of that beneficiary's preferred status as an eligible designated beneficiary.

(g) Upon the death of the beneficiary for whom the trust was created, further payments from the Accounts (including payments pursuant to the exercise of a power of appointment) may be made only to qualified recipients, despite any other provision of this Trust.

23.3 Notification by Trustee. If the Grantor has not provided a copy of this Trust, including relevant amendments, to any custodian of an Account, the Trustee shall provide the information required by the Treasury Regulations to allow a trust to qualify as described above, within the time frame specified in the Regulations.

23.4 Qualified Recipients. The term "qualified recipient" means an individual, or a trust whose beneficiaries are individuals and that is treated as a see-through trust (either accumulation or conduit, as appropriate to the circumstances) so that its beneficiaries are recognized as designated beneficiaries (or eligible designated beneficiaries) under Sections 401(a)(9)(E) and (H) of the Internal Revenue Code and the Treasury Regulations.

23.5 Separate Trust. For ease of administration, the Trustee may hold payments to a trust designated (or allowed) to receive distributions from the Accounts as a separate trust, to be administered under the same terms as the larger trust entitled to those payments, subject to the special terms of this article.

23.6 Trustee Power to Distribute Proceeds to Beneficiaries. The Grantor understands that proceeds from the Accounts may be distributed to a trust in an accelerated fashion either at the Grantor's death or at the termination of an eligible designated beneficiary's interest under the SECURE Act. Except to the extent distribution of those proceeds is required or prohibited by another provision of this Trust Agreement, the Grantor intends the Trustee to have the power to make discretionary distributions to beneficiaries other than the Trustee to balance the impact of the increased income tax the Trust might otherwise pay because of them. If the Trustee is also a beneficiary, he or she may appoint an Independent Trustee for the sole purpose of making such distributions, unless an Independent Trustee is already serving, in which case it will have the exclusive power to make such balancing distributions. For purposes of the 10 year statutory limitations under Section 401(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, the Trustee may make distributions in its discretion ratably over the period, or at any time or times during the deferral period, without liability for its timing choices. The Trustee may also use its discretion not to make such distributions, without liability to the beneficiaries in any case.

ARTICLE 24
TRUST PROTECTOR

A. 1. Upon the death, resignation, or disability of Grantor, a Trust Protector of this Trust may be appointed by the then acting Trustee of the Trust.

2. In the event a Trust Protector shall be unwilling or unable to serve or continue to serve as such Trust Protector, then in that event, he or she shall be succeeded by such individual, or series of individuals to serve consecutively, as the Trustees shall unanimously designate by an instrument in writing. If none is so nominated, the Trust Protector position will remain open until filled by a subsequent unanimous vote of the Trustees.

3. At no time may the Trust Protector of any trust from time to time subsisting hereunder be: (a) Grantor's spouse, (b) an income or principal beneficiary of any trust subsisting hereunder or who has an interest, vested or contingent, direct or indirect, in any trust subsisting hereunder, (c) the spouse of a person described in the foregoing clause (b), (d) "related" or "subordinate", as such terms are defined in Section 672(c) of the Internal Revenue Code, to Grantor or any beneficiary hereunder, and/or (e) Grantor or any other person who has made a gift to a trust subsisting hereunder.

B. The Trust Protector shall act in a fiduciary capacity and in conformity with the purposes of this Trust. Subject to the limiting purposes set forth in Paragraph (C) below, the Trust Protector shall have the following powers to modify or amend the provisions of any trust created under this Trust Agreement:

1. To change the purposes for which discretionary income or discretionary principal may be distributed by the Trustee to any beneficiary of such trust and the factors to be used by the Trustee in exercising such discretion;

2. To accelerate or delay the termination date of such trust (but not beyond any applicable perpetuities period);

3. To grant, increase, reduce or eliminate general or special powers of appointment or withdrawal rights with respect to any beneficiary of such trust and with respect to all or any part of such trust;

4. To modify, add or remove any administrative provisions applicable to such trust;

5. To conform the provisions of this Trust Agreement with respect to any marital trust to the requirements of any federal or state estate tax marital deduction, if such marital trust would otherwise fail to so qualify;

6. To modify or remove any provisions of this Trust Agreement that the Trust Protector in its sole and absolute discretion determines: (i) are or will violate any federal or state statute; or (ii) are the result of an error that may have occurred in the course of preparation of this Trust Agreement; and

7. In general, to make any other changes with respect to the provisions of this Trust Agreement deemed by the Trust Protector in its sole and absolute discretion as necessary to achieve the Grantor's tax and estate planning objectives as exemplified by the provisions of this

Trust Agreement, in light of changes to the Code or any state tax law enacted after the date of execution of this Trust Agreement or any regulatory or judicial interpretation of any such tax laws.

C. The Trust Protector's powers under Paragraph (B) above shall only be exercised to the extent necessary in the Trust Protector's sole and absolute discretion:

1. To prevent unintended tax consequences based on changes made to any federal or state tax law enacted after the date of execution of this Trust Agreement or any regulatory or judicial interpretation of any such tax law in effect on the date of execution of this Trust Agreement that causes any trust hereunder to be interpreted inconsistently with the Grantor's intended tax results as exemplified by the provisions of this Trust Agreement.

2. To prevent the disqualification of any beneficiary from benefits that would otherwise be available to such beneficiary for the health, support and maintenance of such beneficiary from any local, state or federal government or governmental agency that has a legal responsibility to provide benefits to such beneficiary; or

3. To prevent the interpretation of this Trust Agreement or the administration of any trust created hereunder in a manner contrary to the intentions of the Grantor as exemplified by the provisions of this Trust Agreement.

D. Any other provisions of this Trust to the contrary notwithstanding, the Trust Protector shall not participate in the exercise of a power or discretion conferred under this Trust for the direct or indirect benefit of the Trust Protector, the Trust Protector's estate, the Trust Protector's creditors, or the creditors of the Trust Protector's estate, or that would cause the Trust Protector to possess or be deemed to possess a general power of appointment within the meaning of Sections 2041 and 2514 of the Internal Revenue Code.

E. The Trust Protector shall have no duty to monitor any trust subsisting hereunder in order to determine whether any of the powers and discretions conferred under this Trust should be exercised. Further, the Trust Protector shall have no duty to keep informed as to the acts or omissions of others or to take any action to prevent or minimize loss. Any exercise or nonexercise of the powers and discretions granted to the Trust Protector shall be in the sole and absolute discretion of the Trust Protector, and shall be binding and conclusive upon all persons interested in the principal of any trust subsisting hereunder. The Trust Protector is not required to exercise any power or discretion granted under this Trust. Absent bad faith on the part of the Trust Protector, the Trust Protector is exonerated from any and all liability for the acts or omissions of any other fiduciary or any beneficiary hereunder or arising from any exercise or nonexercise of the powers and discretions conferred under this Trust.

F. Any other provision of this Trust to the contrary notwithstanding, the Trust Protector cannot suspend any mandatory distributions to or for the benefit of a beneficiary that are required in order for the trust to qualify for any federal transfer tax exemption, deduction or exclusion allowable with respect to such trust, or that are required to qualify the trust as a qualified subchapter S trust.

G. The Trust Protector shall exercise its powers by written instrument delivered to the Trustee.

H. The Trust Protector shall be entitled to reasonable compensation for its services pursuant to its current schedule of fees from time to time in effect, and to reimbursement for any expenses reasonably incurred in its services rendered hereunder. All such compensation and reimbursement are to be charged to the trust for which such person or entity is a Trust Protector and to which the benefit of those services inures.

I. The Trustees by majority action may remove any Trust Protector by giving all Trust Protectors written notice to that effect and that Trust Protector shall cease to serve immediately upon such notice. Upon removing a Trust Protector the Trustees may appoint by majority vote a successor Trust Protector or may leave that position unfilled.

J. The Trust Protector, on its own behalf and on behalf of all future Trust Protectors, may at any time irrevocably release, renounce, suspend or modify to a lesser extent any or all powers and discretion conferred upon the Trust Protector hereunder by a witnessed and acknowledged written instrument delivered to the Trustee.

ADMINISTRATION AND CONSTRUCTION

25.1 Separate Trusts. This Trust may call for the creation of separate trusts under one or more gifts, such as trusts for separate beneficiaries or exempt and nonexempt trusts for generation-skipping purposes. If so, those trusts are to arise as of the event creating them, e.g., the Grantor's death or the death of another person, even if those trusts are not immediately funded or their shares not exactly determined, so as to be considered separate trusts as of that event under all provisions of the Internal Revenue Code.

25.2 Rules for Distributions. In making distributions to beneficiaries under this Trust Agreement, the Trustee must use the following criteria.

(a) Other Resources. Whenever the Trustee has the authority to decide how much to distribute to or for the benefit of a beneficiary, the Trustee should make decisions taking into account any information readily available to it about the beneficiary's other available income and resources (including any obligations owed to him or her by any person that are reasonably able to be discharged). The Trustee need not obtain financial statements or tax returns from the beneficiary. The Trustee can make payments directly to a beneficiary or to other persons for the beneficiary's benefit, but it does not have to make payments to a court appointed guardian.

(b) Trustee's Decision. Absent clear and convincing evidence of bad faith, the Trustee's decisions as to amounts to be distributed will be final.

(c) Standard of Living. Distributions to a beneficiary for health, education, support, or maintenance are to be based on his or her standard of living, determined as of the date of the distribution.

(d) Unequal Distributions. For any trusts having multiple beneficiaries, distributions may be unequal among them due to differences in their resources, age, health, needs, educational inclinations, and talents. The Trustee may make unequal distributions to or for those beneficiaries without making equalizing adjustments among them, unless specifically provided to the contrary in this Trust Agreement.

25.3 Funding Gifts. The following rules will apply to funding gifts under this Trust Agreement.

(a) Pecuniary Gifts. All pecuniary gifts under this Trust Agreement that are paid by an in-kind distribution of assets must use values having an aggregate fair market value at the date or dates of distribution equal to the amount of this gift as finally determined for federal estate tax purposes.

(b) Adjustments. The Trustee shall select one or more dates of allocation or distribution for purposes of satisfying gifts and funding shares or trusts. The Trustee may make allocations before the final determination of federal estate tax, with those allocations being based upon the information then available to the Trustee, and may thereafter adjust properties among the shares or trusts if it is determined that the allocation should have been made differently.

25.4 Accumulated Income. Any income not distributed to the beneficiaries pursuant to either a mandatory direction or a discretionary power is to be incorporated into principal, at such intervals as the Trustee deems convenient.

25.5 Estate Tax on Included Property. If assets of any trust created under this Trust Agreement are included in a beneficiary's estate for federal estate tax purposes, the following will apply.

(a) Appointed Assets. If the beneficiary exercises a power of appointment over those assets, the Trustee is authorized to withhold from those assets the amount of estate taxes apportioned to them by applicable law, if the beneficiary does not make provisions for the payment of those taxes from other sources.

(b) Other Assets. If the beneficiary does not have or does not exercise a power of appointment over those assets, the Trustee will pay the estate taxes attributable to those assets. The estate taxes attributable to those assets will be the amount that the beneficiary's estate taxes are increased over the amount those taxes would have been if those assets had not been included in the beneficiary's gross estate.

(c) Certification and Payment. The Trustee may rely upon a written certification by the beneficiary's personal representative of the amount of the estate taxes, and may pay those taxes directly or to the personal representative of the beneficiary's estate. The Trustee will not be held liable for making payments as directed by the beneficiary's personal representative.

25.6 Transactions With Other Entities. The Trustee may buy assets from other estates or trusts, or make loans to them, so that funds will be available to pay claims, taxes, and expenses. The Trustee can make those purchases or loans even if it serves as the fiduciary of that estate or trust, and on whatever terms and conditions the Trustee thinks are appropriate, except that the terms of any transaction must be commercially reasonable.

APPLICABLE LAW; TRUST SITUS

All questions regarding the law to be applied or the appropriate situs of any trust will be governed by the terms of this article as follows:

26.1 Validity; Construction. All matters involving the validity, interpretation, construction, and meaning (or effect) of the Trust created under this instrument are to be governed by Florida law, which is currently the Grantor's domicile.

26.2 Principal Place of Administration. All matters involving the administration of the Trust created under this instrument are to be governed by Florida law, which is currently the Grantor's domicile and the initial principal place of administration (the "situs") of those trusts. A Trustee may change the principal place of administration of any trust as provided below.

26.3 Determining Situs. The Trustee will have a continuing duty to administer the Trust at a place appropriate to its purposes and its administration. In exercising this duty, the Trustee may wish to (but is not required to) consider the factors specified in Section 736.0108 of the Florida Statutes and the impact of a change to a different situs on the following: state and local taxes; compensation of fiduciaries; investment authority; duties, responsibilities, and liabilities of the Trustee; and any other factor appropriate to the new jurisdiction.

26.4 Transferring Situs. The Trustee, acting from time to time and without court approval, may transfer the situs of the Trust to any jurisdiction within the United States, subject to the notice requirements contained in Section 736.0108(6) of the Florida Statutes.

26.5 Substitute Trustee. If the Trustee is unable or unwilling to serve in the new trust situs, the Trustee may: designate a substitute Trustee to act with respect to that property in the new situs; delegate to the substitute Trustee any or all of the powers given to the Trustee; elect to act as advisor to the substitute Trustee and receive reasonable compensation for that service; and remove any acting substitute Trustee and appoint another, or reappoint itself, if appropriate, at will.

ARTICLE 27
MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

27.1 Definitions. As used in this Trust Agreement, the following terms have the meanings set forth below:

(a) Fiduciaries.

(1) Independent Trustee means a trustee of a particular trust, either individual or corporate, who is (i) designated as an Independent Trustee in this Trust Agreement or (ii) is not the Grantor or a beneficiary, and who is not a Related Person as to the Grantor or a beneficiary (if the Grantor participates in that person's appointment after the execution of this Trust Agreement or the beneficiary participates in that person's appointment at any time). For purposes of this definition a beneficiary is a person who is a permissible distributee of income or principal, or someone with an interest in the trust in excess of five percent (5%) of its value, assuming a maximum exercise of discretion in his or her favor. Whenever this Trust Agreement requires an action be taken by, or in the discretion of, an Independent Trustee but no such Trustee is then serving, a court may appoint an Independent Trustee to serve as an additional Trustee whose sole function and duty will be to exercise the specified power.

(2) Corporate Trustee means a trustee that is a bank, trust company, or other entity authorized to serve as a trustee under the laws of the United States or any state thereof which has at least Five Hundred Million Dollars ($500,000,000) of assets under trust management (which may include assets managed by affiliated or subsidiary banks or trust companies). A bank or trust company that does not meet this requirement cannot serve as Trustee.

(b) Internal Revenue Code Terms.

(1) Internal Revenue Code means the federal Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended from time to time, or successor provisions of future federal internal revenue laws.

(2) Gross estate means gross estate for federal estate tax purposes as defined in Section 2031 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(3) The terms health, education, support, and maintenance are intended to set forth an "ascertainable standard," as described in the Internal Revenue Code and its associated Regulations. To the extent not inconsistent with the foregoing, "health" means a beneficiary's physical and mental health, including but not limited to payments for examinations, surgical, dental, or other treatment, medication, counseling, hospitalization, and health insurance premiums; "education" means elementary, secondary, post-secondary, graduate, or professional schooling in an accredited institution, public or private, or attendance at other formal programs in furtherance of the beneficiary's spiritual, athletic, or artistic education, including but not limited to payments for tuition, books, fees, assessments, equipment, tutoring, transportation, and reasonable living expenses.

(4) Related Person as to a particular individual is someone who is deemed to be "related or subordinate" to that individual under Section 672(c) of the Internal Revenue Code (as though that individual was a grantor).

(c) Other Terms.

(1) Residuary Trust Estate means the Trust Estate (including assets added to the Trust by reason of the Grantor's death) left after paying all pre-residuary gifts in this Trust Agreement and all expenses and charges (other than estate taxes).

(2) An individual who is the genetic child of parents who were not married to each other at his or her birth will be deemed not to be a descendant of his or her father unless the father (i) is married to that individual's mother at any time during the period starting at that individual's conception and ending at his or her birth, (ii) marries that individual's mother after that individual's birth, (iii) adopts the individual at any time, or (iv) acknowledges his paternity of the individual in a signed instrument filed with any court or governmental agency or delivered to any fiduciary during that father's lifetime. In all events, a person must be born no later than 18 months after his or her parent's death to be considered a descendant of that parent.

(3) Distributions that are to be made to a person's descendants, per stirpes, will be divided into equal shares, so that there will be one share for each living child (if any) of that person and one share for each deceased child who has then living descendants. The share of each deceased child will be further divided among his or her descendants on a per stirpes basis, by reapplying the preceding rule to that deceased child and his or her descendants as many times as necessary.

(4) Disabled or under a disability means (i) being under the legal age of majority, (ii) having been adjudicated to be incapacitated, (iii) having been incarcerated for more than thirty consecutive days, (iv) being unaccountably absent for more than thirty days or being detained under duress, or (v) being unable to manage properly personal or financial affairs because of a mental or physical impairment (whether temporary or permanent in nature). A written certificate executed by an individual's attending physician confirming that person's impairment will be sufficient evidence of disability under item (v) above, and all persons may rely conclusively on such a certificate.

(5) The words will and shall are used interchangeably in this Trust Agreement and mean, unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, that the Trustee must take the action indicated; as used in this Trust Agreement, the word may means that the Trustee has the discretionary authority to take the action but is not automatically required to do so.

27.2 Powers of Appointment. The following provisions relate to all powers of appointment created by the Grantor at any time and to any power exercisable by or under this Trust Agreement.

(a) A general power of appointment granted to a person is one that can be exercised in favor of any one or more of the following: that person or his or her estate, his or her creditors, or the creditors of his or her estate.

(b) A special power of appointment is any power that is not a general power; it may be exercisable in favor of a specified class or, if no class is specified, in favor of any person or entity (other than the appointees specified in Section 27.2(a) above.)

(c) A testamentary power of appointment (either general or special) is exercisable upon the powerholder's death by his or her Last Will or by a revocable trust agreement established by that person, but only by specific reference to the instrument creating the power. A testamentary power of appointment may not be exercised in favor of the person possessing the power. Unless otherwise indicated, any power under this Trust Agreement may be exercised so as to create an interest held in trust.

(d) Unless otherwise limited, a power of appointment extends to all assets in a trust at the exercise of the power, even if added after the creation of the trust.

(e) In determining whether a person has exercised a testamentary power of appointment, the Trustee may rely upon an instrument admitted to probate in any jurisdiction as that person's Last Will, or upon any trust agreement certified to be valid and authentic by sworn statement of the trustee who is serving under that trust agreement. If the Trustee has not received written notice of such an instrument within six months after the powerholder's death, the Trustee may presume that the powerholder failed to exercise that power and will not be liable for acting in accordance with that presumption.

(f) The Grantor expressly refrains from exercising any power of appointment that he may possess at his death.

27.3 Lapsed Gifts. If any gift is conditioned on the recipient surviving the Grantor or another person and no alternative disposition of that gift is specified, the gift will lapse and become part of the Residuary Trust Estate if the designated recipient does not survive.

27.4 Right to Information. During the Grantor's lifetime and while the Grantor is not disabled, the Trustee shall provide the Grantor with any information the Grantor requests concerning actions taken by the trustee and the operation of the Trust, including a full listing of its assets. Upon the Grantor's death or disability, the Trustee shall provide such information, upon request, to the person then entitled to remove successor Trustees as specified in Section 12.4.

27.5 Notices. Any person entitled or required to give notice under this Trust Agreement shall exercise that power by a written instrument clearly setting forth the effective date of the action for which notice is being given. The instrument may be executed in counterparts. Notice of the Grantor's exercise of any power under this Trust Agreement need be given only to the affected Trustees.

27.6 Certifications.

(a) From Personal Representative. For some purposes, the Trustee is authorized to rely on a certificate from the Grantor's Personal Representative as to certain facts. That certificate must be in writing and witnessed by two impartial persons, but need not be notarized. It is to be delivered to the Trustee in the same fashion as provided for other notices.

(b) Facts. A certificate signed and acknowledged by the Trustee stating any fact affecting the Trust Estate or the Trust Agreement will be conclusive evidence of such fact in favor of any transfer agent and any other person dealing in good faith with the Trustee. The Trustee may rely on a certificate signed and acknowledged by any beneficiary stating any fact concerning the Trust beneficiaries, including dates of birth, relationships, or marital status, unless an individual serving as Trustee has actual knowledge that the stated fact is false. Knowledge of all other facts will be determined as provided in Section 736.0104 of the Florida Statutes.

(c) Copy. Any person may rely on a copy of this instrument (in whole or in part) certified to be a true copy by the Grantor; by any person specifically named as a Trustee (or successor Trustee); by any Corporate Trustee whether or not specifically named; or, if there are none of the above, by any then serving Trustee.

27.7 Dispute Resolution. If there is a dispute or controversy of any nature involving the construction, meaning, or effect of this Trust or any trust created under it, or the disposition or administration of any such trust, then unless all parties in interest who are not disabled waive this section, the Grantor directs the disputing parties to agree on a manner of alternative dispute resolution. If there is no such agreement, the disputing parties shall submit the matter to mediation. If any party rejects mediation or refuses to participate in good faith, or if all issues are not resolved by mediation or the other form of resolution agreed upon, the Grantor authorizes the court having jurisdiction over the subject trust to award costs and attorney's fees from that party's beneficial share or from other amounts payable to that party (including amounts payable to that party as compensation for service as fiduciary) as in chancery actions.

27.8 Adopted Children. A legally adopted child (and any descendants of that child) will be regarded as a descendant of the adopting parent only if the petition for adoption was filed with the court before the child's fourteenth birthday, except that this limitation will not apply to any child adopted by the Grantor.

27.9 Infant in Gestation. For all purposes of this Trust Agreement, an infant in gestation who is later born alive will be deemed to be in being during the period of gestation for the purpose of qualifying the infant, after it is born, as a beneficiary of this Trust.

27.10 Gender and Number. Reference in this Trust Agreement to any gender includes either masculine or feminine, as appropriate, and reference to any number includes both singular and plural where the context permits or requires.

27.11 Headings. Use of descriptive titles for articles and paragraphs is for the purpose of convenience only and is not intended to restrict the application of those provisions.

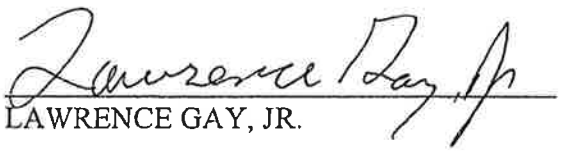

27.12 Further Instruments. The Grantor agrees to execute such further instruments as may be necessary to vest the Trustee with full legal title to the property transferred to this Trust.

27.13 Acknowledgments. Acknowledgments of this Trust Agreement and matters affecting the administration of the Trust may be given for purposes of recording such instruments, but the absence of an acknowledgment does not affect the validity of those instruments.

27.14 Binding Effect. This Trust Agreement extends to and is binding upon the Grantor's Personal Representative, successors, and assigns, and upon the Trustee.

Executed as of the effective date written above.
