THE MARLOWE FAMILY LIVING TRUST

Declaration of Trust dated March 12, 1998

I, ELEANOR ANN MARLOWE, of Coral Gables, Florida, declare that I hold the property described in Schedule A, and all property later added to the trust, on the terms set out below.

ARTICLE ONE - THE TRUST AND ITS TRUSTEES

1.1 Name and Trustor. This trust is called the Marlowe Family Living Trust (the "Trust"). ELEANOR ANN MARLOWE is the "Trustor."

1.2 Trustees. The Trustor is the initial Trustee. If the Trustor dies, becomes incapacitated or resigns, DANIEL R. WHITFIELD will serve as successor Trustee. Mr. Whitfield's address is 210 Palmetto Court, Coral Gables, Florida 33134, and his telephone number is (305) 555-0142.

1.3 Right to Revoke. The Trustor may revoke this Trust at any time during her lifetime.

ARTICLE TWO - DEFINITIONS

2.1 "Trust Estate" means all property held in the Trust from time to time.

2.2 "Residue" means the Trust Estate remaining after payment of the Trustor's debts, funeral expenses and taxes, and after the specific gift in Section 4.1 has been made.

2.3 "Charitable Beneficiary" means the UNIVERSITY OF MIAMI, a Florida nonprofit corporation.

2.4 "Life Beneficiary" means HELEN MARLOWE PRICE, the Trustor's sister.

ARTICLE THREE - DURING THE TRUSTOR'S LIFETIME

3.1 Distributions to the Trustor. While the Trustor is living, the Trustee shall pay to her as much of the net income and principal as she requests or as is needed for her health, support and comfort.

ARTICLE FOUR - DISTRIBUTION AFTER THE TRUSTOR'S DEATH

4.1 Specific Gift. When the Trustor dies, the Trustee shall distribute twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) to MARCUS T. ELLERY, if he survives the Trustor by thirty (30) days. If he does not, this gift lapses and becomes part of the Residue.

4.2 Life Income. The Trustee shall hold the Residue in trust and pay its net income to the Life Beneficiary in quarterly installments for her lifetime. If the Life Beneficiary does not survive the Trustor, Section 4.3 applies immediately on the Trustor's death.

4.3 Distribution of the Residue. On the death of the Life Beneficiary (or on the Trustor's death, if Section 4.2 so provides), the Trustee shall distribute the Residue as follows:

(a) fifty percent (50%) to the Charitable Beneficiary, to be used for its general scholarship purposes; and

(b) fifty percent (50%) to CLAIRE PRICE DONOVAN, the Trustor's niece, outright.

4.4 If the Niece Does Not Survive. If Claire Price Donovan does not survive the Life Beneficiary, her share passes to the Charitable Beneficiary.

4.5 If the Charity Is Not in Existence. If the Charitable Beneficiary is not in existence when a distribution is to be made to it, that share instead passes to Claire Price Donovan, if she is then living.

ARTICLE FIVE - GENERAL PROVISIONS

5.1 Trustee Powers. The Trustee may sell, invest, lease and otherwise manage Trust property, and may hire advisers, as a prudent person would.

5.2 No-Contest Clause. A beneficiary who contests this Trust without probable cause forfeits every interest he, she or it would otherwise receive under it.

5.3 Amendment. The Trustor may amend this Trust at any time during her lifetime by a signed writing delivered to the Trustee.

5.4 Governing Law. Florida law governs this Trust.

The Trustor signed this Declaration of Trust on March 12, 1998, at Coral Gables, Florida.

/s/ Eleanor Ann Marlowe
Eleanor Ann Marlowe, Trustor and initial Trustee

SCHEDULE A - INITIAL TRUST PROPERTY

1. Cash of $10,000 on deposit at a Florida bank.

2. The Trustor's residence at 88 Alhambra Court, Coral Gables, Florida.